

"The flavours themselves are excellent"

2010 MC SPARKLING SHIRAZ

Acidity feels a little distracting, as does alcohol, but it's otherwise both soft and plush and, indeed, smashable. It tastes of ripe, sweet plums, leather, five spice and choc, though time in bottle has mellowed matters to the point where it impresses as seamless and supple, in the softest of ways. The flavours themselves are excellent.

90 POINTS

CAMPBELL MATTINSON, WINE FRONT
JANUARY 2017

TRUE & RIGHTEOUS PLEASURE

